DOE to Honor Nuclear Weapons Patriots of SRS at National Day of Remembrance Program

Aiken, SC (Oct. 26) – In commemoration of a National Day of Remembrance, the U.S. Department of Energy (DOE) will honor past, present and future nuclear weapons program employees of the Savannah River Site (SRS) at a special program on Friday, October, 30, 2009.

In May 2009, the United States Senate approved a resolution designating October 30, 2009, as a National Day of Remembrance to recognize the contributions and service of these patriots who served our country by building and maintaining our nuclear forces during World War II through the Cold War and continuing today.

The SRS program will be held on Friday, October 30, 2009, from 10:00 – 11:00 AM on the front lawn of the Site Badge Office on SRS Road 1.

WHAT: National Day of Remembrance Program Honoring Nuclear Weapons Program Employees

WHEN: Friday, October 30, 2009; 10:00 AM – 11:00 AM

WHERE: Front Lawn, SRS Badge Office; Aiken, South Carolina

Note to Editors and News Directors:

Reporters interested in covering the SRS event should respond to a contact listed above by 6:00 PM, Thursday, October 29.
